Bachelor in International Relations (BA)

Faculty’s name: Apáczai Csere János
Programme: International Relations
Type and name of degree: Expert in International Relations
Duration of studies: 6 semesters
Language of instruction: English
Degree (BA, MA, PhD. etc): BA

Introduction of the programme

The International Relations BA programme is designed to learn how the world works. A multidisciplinary and flexible programme and the quality of education combine a wide range of courses in international relations, history, economics, political science, foreign languages, sociology and regional studies, among other disciplines. Thus, the programme is for individuals who are able to understand and interpret complexity and are prepared to handle a broad range of evidence, analyse complex issues and present arguments in a clear, concise and effective manner. As well as knowledge of key subfields and theories of international relations as a discipline, graduates understand relations between nations and display familiarity with foreign cultures and languages.

Career opportunities

The programme prepares students for leadership and service in the international diplomatic, professional, and academic communities. government, e.g. member of the country’s Foreign service; (global) corporations, e.g. consultant for a multilateral organisation; nongovernmental organizations, e.g. development expert in an NGO

Specialisation: None

Structure of studies

The total number of credits needed to complete the programme is 180 credits. The courses of the program are divided into three categories: compulsory courses (157 credits), thesis courses (10 credits) and elective courses (13 credits). 1 credit equals one ECTS credit, and 1 credit is defined as 25 student working hours.

Application deadline: June 1 for the Autumn semester

More information: http://uni.sze.hu/en_GB/study-in-foreign-language