

named after the first President
of Russia B.N.Yeltsin

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

„Culture-based Development in Modern Cities:

Experiences From Russia and Hungary”

International Conference

7th October 2019

Venue: Széchenyi István University, Győr, Egyetem square 1., Hungary

10:00-10:15 CONFERENCE INTRODUCTION AND WELCOME (ROOM: ÚT. 114)

Eszter Lukács, vice rector, associate professor, Széchenyi István University, Győr

Dávid Fekete, deputy of mayor, city of Győr

10:15-12:45 PLENARY SESSION (ROOM: ÚT. 114)

Chair: Eszter Lukács, vice rector, associate professor, Széchenyi István University, Győr

„Culture-based Urban Development: Ideal and Practice Beyond Core Regions” – Gábor Lux, senior research fellow, Hungarian Academy of Sciences CERS Institute for Regional Studies

„The scope of state in the production of urban space - a relational approach”- Gábor Nagy, senior research fellow, Hungarian Academy of Sciences CERS Institute for Regional Studies

„Digital transformation in cities: coworking spaces in Hungary”- Dóra Bálint junior research fellow, Réka Horeczki, junior research fellow, ELKH Centre for Economic and Regional Studies, Institute for Regional Studies

named after the first President
of Russia B.N.Yeltsin

„State Support of Company Towns in Russia and Kazakhstan: Comparative Analysis”-
Irina Turgel, professor, Ural Federal University

„Design of Public Buildings and Spaces in European Towns as a Significant Part of the Territory’s Tourist Image”- Tatiana Bystrova, professor, Ural Federal University

„Socio-cultural potential of minor and medium cities development in the eyes of young people”- Viola Larionova, associate professor, Ural Federal University

„Creative City Concept and the creative pyramid model – Example of Győr”- Dávid Fekete, associate professor, Szabolcs Morvay, doctoral candidate, Széchenyi István University

„The Operationalization of the Creative Node Model”- András Lévai, Széchenyi István University

„Győr as a creative city - Overview of the local creative industry”- Petra Kezai, PhD student, Széchenyi István University